The Love That Bound Her!

It was love for the boy that bound her to this house of hate—that made her suffer in silence for another woman's wrongs.

Intercollegiate Meeting. The regular October meeting of the Memphis Inter-Collegiate association will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 in the parlors of the Hotel Gayoso.

Alliance Francaise.

Allance Francise.

A very interesting season is being planned by the Allance Francise, which will begin its winter's activities with a meeting on Oct. 21, to be held with the president, Mrs. John McBee. Two meetings will be held each month one formal, the other informal, both of which will no doubt prove of great interest and benefit to those who study French, and are anxious to gain a greater knowledge of the language and the people.

reater knowledge of the language and be people.

Now that France is so closely allied ith America and the American boys are been sheltered in French homes nd have after a fashion learned to peak the French language, interest in it is universally much broader.

The Alliance Francalse offers a splendid opportunity for those in Memphis who really want to learn French, and n such a way that the study is made loubly pleasant.

in such a way that the study is made doubly pleasant.

All who wish to join the alliance are asked to notify Mrs. John McBee at 1437 Peabody avenue, or to send their names to her signifying their desire for membership. An invitation is extended to all soldiers and war workers who have been overseas and who wish to continue their study of French.
